

U.S. Road To Recovery On Campus . . .

Where social good innovation and student imagination converge.

Some Facts

The 2,618 accredited U.S. colleges & universities produce over 150,000 degreed graduates every year.

In 2009 the jobless rate for workers aged 26 or younger was 25%.

The number one reason employers give college grads for not hiring them – 'They have no Experience!'

If you want to gain valuable real-world experience and make a social good impact... then read on!

If you want to work with an organization whose mission is to develop and build sustainable U.S. jobs growth and wealth creation machines for the 21st century, then we want to hear from you.

If you want to be part of a 'Culture of Success': A culture that supports rapid innovation & excellent execution and avoids the rigidity, politics, mediocrity and complacency that infects most organizations as they grow, then we want to hear from you.

If you want to be part of a culture that values what we value: high performance, freedom & responsibility, context – not control, highly aligned – loosely coupled, promotions & development, then we want to hear from you.
